To Harsh Jain

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to recommend for their successful completion of an internship with WEBXELA from June 3, 2024, to September 3, 2024. During this time, the intern worked with our team and consistently demonstrated a great ability to learn and grow.

The intern was always eager to take on new challenges and contributed positively to our projects. They worked well with the team, approached tasks with creativity, and quickly adapted to new technologies and methods.

Throughout the internship, the intern showed strong interest in improving skills and learning from others. Their positive attitude and commitment to work will surely benefit them in their future endeavors.

I highly recommend this individual for any opportunities they pursue. We are confident that they have a bright future ahead and wish them success in their professional journey.

We wish the intern the best of luck in all future career endeavors and are confident they will continue to succeed in whatever path they choose.

Sincerely

Yatharth Chauhan
